A SMALL CRAFT ADVISORY..

- A small craft advisory is issued by NEMO when marine conditions outside the reef and areas around Angaur and Kayangel are moderate to relatively rough.
- Traveling to these areas are allowed but caution is advised.
- If you venture out and water conditions are too rough, DO NOT proceed to these areas.
- An Advisory is in effect only when the SMALL CRAFT ADVISORY flag is flown.
- The Advisory Flag is white with red lettering.
- Flag locations are listed on the back.

A SMALL CRAFT WARNING..

- A small craft warning is issued by NEMO when marine conditions outside the reef and areas around Angaur and Kayangel are extremely rough.
- Traveling to these areas is strictly prohibited.
- Travel within the reef at this time is usually allowed provided NEMO should be contacted first.
- A Warning is in effect only when the SMALL CRAFT WARNING flag is flown.
- The Warning Flag is red with white lettering.
- Flag locations are listed on the back.
